Festival 2021  June 7-9
Festival of the Arts, Grand Rapids, Michigan  Designed by Stephen and Taylor Smith, Muse GR
Welcome to the 55th Annual Festival of the Arts!

For the past 55 years, we’ve been the legacy “start of summer” event in downtown Grand Rapids. Festival visitors know they’ll find the most diverse array of West Michigan’s best artists, performers, art activities, food and more. We are proud to spotlight the amazing talent in our community.

You can purchase handmade art from more than 60 artisans in the Artisan Village along Ottawa Street, on your way to more than 200 music, dance and spoken-word performances on four downtown stages and an Indoor Classical venue. Don't forget to visit the second level in DeVos Place Convention Center Skywalk where you'll find the Festival Regional Arts exhibit, featuring over 300 juried artworks, along with Youth Arts representing students from 27 schools in West Michigan.

And we haven’t forgotten the kiddos! In addition to our usual activities for the little ones, we have many new activities such as Create-your-own Comic Book, Dance Party, and more - plus Fun with Printmaking and Paint-in too.

Be sure to save your appetite for Festival’s popular food booths and food trucks offering cultural cuisine from around the world. And, be sure to head over to Uccello’s on Monroe to try a brew made specially for Festival by Lost Art Brewhouse.

Thanks to the work of hundreds of volunteers, and generous support from area corporations, foundations and individual donors, we have been able to stay true to our mission of spotlighting the arts and culture that make this community so outstanding. If you and your family would like to be Festival volunteers, simply click on this link and let us know. And, please consider supporting us through a financial donation.

Thank you for visiting Festival and supporting West Michigan arts and artisans!

Festival of the Arts 2024

Drop-off located at Info Booth
Festival of the Arts is proud to announce George Bayard III and Shelley Irwin as its Honorary Co-Chairs for 2024. With a rich history of championing the arts, their appointments herald an exciting chapter for the festival's enduring legacy.

George Bayard III: A Beacon of Artistic and Cultural Advocacy

George Bayard III, a celebrated figure in the art world, has dedicated over three decades to elevating artists of color through his esteemed gallery in West Michigan. As the visionary behind the Grand Rapids African American Museum and Archives (GRAAMA), Bayard has been instrumental in showcasing the rich tapestry of African American history and culture. His accolades include the prestigious 2018 ArtPrize Outstanding Venue award and recognition from AASLH magazine for the impactful Grandma’s Voices Oral History Project. Beyond his gallery walls, Bayard’s multifaceted roles as a conservator, appraiser, lecturer, and filmmaker, among others, underscore his profound influence on the arts landscape. His leadership and advocacy have earned him numerous awards, including the Albert Baxter Award for Local History and the Carol and David Van Andel Leadership Award.

Shelley Irwin: A Voice for the Community

Shelley Irwin, renowned for her dynamic presence on The Shelley Irwin Show on WGVU, West Michigan’s NPR affiliate, brings a wealth of experience and passion to her role as co-chair. Irwin’s accolades, including five consecutive Gracie Allen Awards, reflect her excellence in broadcasting and her commitment to community engagement. As a celebrated figure in West Michigan’s business and philanthropic circles, her influence extends through her involvement with various foundations and organizations, advocating for women, health, and education. Irwin’s leadership and vision have been recognized with numerous honors, including the Athena Award and designation as one of West Michigan’s most powerful business leaders.
The Festival 2024 poster was created by artists Stephen & Taylor Smith of Muse GR Galleries. View the original artwork at the Visual Arts Exhibition on the DeVos Place Convention Center skywalk.

“Festival of Arts in Grand Rapids holds a special place in our hearts. It provides artists with a platform to practice and showcase their craft, but also fosters a sense of unity within our community. This vibrant event allows us to witness the city through the diverse perspectives of talented individuals, offering a fresh and unique lens to appreciate our surroundings.

Muse is an interactive art gallery and event space located in Grand Rapids, MI. It is a collaborative space for creatives to execute projects, host events, facilitate workshops, and more. Continuously evolving and reflecting the diversity of art and creativity, Muse serves as a beacon of light and inspiration for the community.”

REMINDER

This is your friendly reminder that we are all volunteers. Be kind to all of those putting forth their best efforts to help make Festival of the Arts a success for you. We depend on kids and adults, families, neighbors and friends from the community to make the arts accessible to all.

We give our time because of our love for the community.

If you’d like to make a change, join us in volunteering. We would love to have you join the Festival family.
